About 700 persons attended the two-night Gilbert and Sullivan review which ended the Granite City park district's "Music Under the Stars" program for this season.

A cast of 48 directed by Warren G. Simpson sang songs from "Mikado," "HMS Pinafore," "Pirates of Penzance," and "Iolanthe." Held at the 27th street and Delmar avenue entrance to Wilson park, the review drew about 400 Thursday night and about 300 Friday.

Principal roles were sung by Marvin Boyer, Reba Humphrey, Robert Arbogast, Barbara Bailey, Joyce West and Virginia Schluter in "Mikado." Frank Carroll, Gary Grammer, Diana Jo Thuis and Thomas Bigham in "HMS Pinafore." Arthur Nichols, Howard Mace, Anna Mae Cluffoff, Margaret MacZura and Judy Cox in "Pirates of Penzance." and Catherine Kunkamp, Peggy Carmack and Carl Mainbridge in "Iolanthe."

Dramatic director was Wayne Hubbard, while Diana Taylor was choreographer and Phyllis Stout Crews accompanist.

The first and earlier program was presented June 29 with excerpts from "My Fair Lady" and "South Pacific."

Auto, 3 Lawns Damaged By Vandals Friday Night

Three acts of vandalism which damaged lawns at three homes and an automobile from which gasoline was siphoned were reported Saturday morning to Granite City police.

Mrs. Mary Blankenship, 2308 Clark avenue, said gas was taken from her car. The vandals ran down the battery and placed nails under each of the four tires while it was parked in a carport at her home. Toilet paper also was strewn on the carport and in the street, she said.

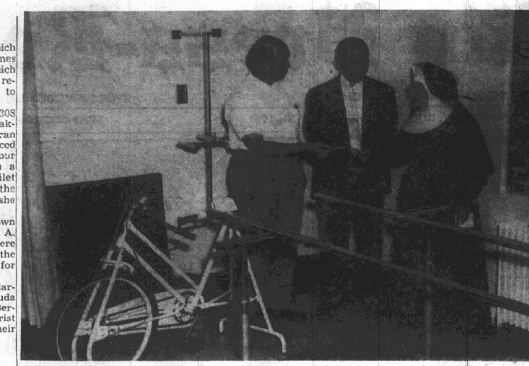

Toilet tissue also was thrown about the home of William A. Brewer, 14 Riviera drive, where an auto was driven through the yard, knocking down two for sale signs.

In the same subdivision, Clarence E. Schiller, 18 Bermuda lane, and E. L. Frey, 29 Bermuda lane, reported a motorist had made a U-turn over their lawns, causing damage.

Looking on is Sidney Aubrey, of the United Fund health services fund, at a cost of over $5000.

New Therapy Dept. Opens Tomorrow At Hospital

Beginning operation tomorrow, a new physical therapy department at St. Elizabeth Hospital will be in operation with equipment valued at about $5000. A full-time therapist will be on duty.

Expenses for the three-room department were paid for through the United Fund health services fund. Total cost, including installation, is approximately $5000.

Located in three former patient rooms on the fourth floor of the older section of the building, the department will include about 20 separate units of equipment.

Miss Jacqueline Haug, a former therapist at St. John's Hospital, Springfield, Mo., and a Missouri Baptist Hospital, St. Louis, will be the chief there. She is a graduate of St. Louis University.

Eliminated transfers previously, patients requiring physical therapy treatment had to be transferred to East St. Louis or St. Louis hospitals. The department will be used for maintenance of muscular tone and movement, prevention of disability and rehabilitation of the weak and handicapped.

Purchase of the equipment was authorized by the United Fund in April 1960. It arrived in December but installation was delayed by work in other parts of the hospital.

The service was under the direction of Arthur Roseman, chairman of the social planning committee of the U.F.

In addition to the items paid for by the United Fund, some units have been contributed by local residents.

The equipment includes an inhalation therapy unit for oxygen treatment, exercise machine, parallel bars, whirlpool baths, bicycle exerciser, wheel chairs, traction unit, heat and sound machines, treatment tables and infra-red lamps.

By means of therapeutic exercises, heat, cold, light, water, massage and electricity, the department will be able to relieve pain, increase circulation, prevent and correct disability, and aid in mobility and coordination. Also included will be performance of electrical and manual tests to determine the amount of impairment to nerves and muscles and joint movement.

The United Fund payments have so far totaled $4300, with the bill for only the equipment, inhalation room and installation costs are estimated at $5000 and will be paid by the United Fund.

S. M. Wilson Contracting Co. did the work on the rooms while G. H. Sternberg & Co. was contractor for the installation.

City, Unions Meeting On Work Agreements

Negotiations between the Granite City council's Personnel committee and representatives of unions for the police, fire, street and sanitation departments were resumed Saturday morning at the city hall and are expected to continue throughout this week.

The city's 140 employees were granted $25 monthly pay increases during last week's council session, and negotiations now are underway for working agreements.

Proposed by the unions is a two-year agreement with $25 monthly pay hikes each year or one-year agreements with extra fringe benefits, including three weeks vacation after five years instead of ten. The police union also is asking for a rating of patrolman first class with $15 month additional pay for those who have three years experience and quality through training schools and a special firearms training course.

The $25 monthly pay boost will cost the city an extra $42,000 a year, and the committee is now ascertaining the additional cost for fringe benefits sought by the unions.

Mayor Davis said a schedule of meetings is being arranged for the council committee to meet with the individual unions starting tonight and continuing throughout the week to prepare for adoption of a new city law.

20 Persons Arrested After All-Night Party On Levee

An all-night "party" on the Chain of Rocks canal levee early Friday became a matter for county, state and Granite City police when about 20 persons, mostly teenagers, reportedly tried to push at least two cars into the water.

The group included a man, 13 boys and six girls who were arrested and charged with disorderly conduct. An AWOL soldier was turned over to military authorities.

The others were taken to the Edwardsville county jail when they were unable to pay fines ranging from $100 to $200 or make bond. Five were released to their parents because of their age.

Questioning of the group disclosed they began congregating on the levee at about 10:30 p.m. Thursday. By midnight most had assembled and began to consume a case of beer and several pints of wine, authorities said.

Barge Skipper Spots Car
Police were first alerted at about 2:30 a.m. when the skipper of a northbound towboat spotted a car nearly in the water at the North end of the harbor area.

He radioed Lorin Neuling, head operator of Lock 27, who summoned county authorities. They found the car abandoned but with its engine still warm. James J. Reidelberger, director of Madison county court social services, who helped question the youths, said this car apparently belonged to the family of Danny Farley, 17, one of those arrested.

"They apparently had a lot of trouble with this car after buying it for about $30 recently and the motor must have frozen on them," he said.

"Then when Farley said something like, 'I got half a notion to run it into the canal,' one thing led to another until they almost did," Reidelberger said.

Second Incident Reported
A second incident occurred about 4:15 a.m. when Neuling saw a man who was later arrested crossing a security fence on the west levee. By then county authorities had gone.

"I asked him what the trouble was," Neuling reported, "and at first he said his car had stalled and he wanted me to let him through to Granite City."

Changing his story, James Hood, 19, of 2001 Bryan avenue, told Neuling that a gang was trying to push his car into the water for kicks. He said they had broken some of the windows with rocks.

Neuling again phoned police and this time county, state and local authorities answered the call.

"I could see the gang walking up the levee, hollering and making a tremendous noise," Neuling said, "and I told the police they could still catch them if they hurried."

Watches Through Binoculars
Neuling watched police intercept the group about a mile away on the west bank of the levee through binoculars. He said three or four ran toward the water but were caught when they tried to hide in weeds.

Another escaped but was found at his home. Reidelberger said he believed the affairs was not so much an all-night party but some of the group became stranded when a third car blew a tire while they were trying to leave.

He said one of those arrested, Leon S. Hays, 33, of Rural Route One, was probably a "victim of circumstances" because he was road. No injuries were listed.

Driver In Accident
A charge of making improper left turn was placed against John D. Simpson, 34, of 2411 Benton street, following a two-car accident Saturday afternoon at 26th street and Madison avenue. He posted his driver's license as bond.

Police said Simpson was driving south on Madison avenue and making a left turn into a driveway, while the other car was being operated north by Leslie E. Davis, 23, of 2130 S. Mason street. No injuries were listed.

Three Dead Not Guilty
Pleading not guilty were William H. Hays, 18, of Rural Route One; and Joe H. Wade, 18, of 1226 Madison avenue. Hearings were set for 8 a.m. Aug. 5.

The soldier, Marion D. Paul, 18, of 2109 Madison avenue, pleaded guilty and was turned over to military authorities after a fine of $100 was stayed.

Five others including four girls and a 14-year-old boy from St. Louis were released to their parents.

Venice Man Arrested
Following Park Cutting
Joseph Griggs, 50, of 1014 College street, Venice, was arrested by Venice police about 8 p.m. Friday on an assault charge after allegedly cutting another man with a pocket knife in Lee Park.

Robert Ingram, 46, of 1109 Russell avenue, Venice, said he was playing baseball with his children when Griggs came up, started cursing him and then cut him. Ingram received emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital and was released. Griggs was released on bond to appear for a hearing at a later date.

Local YMCA Is Mecca For Quad-Cities Area

Like many other sprawling young communities, the Quad-Cities area lacks a geographic center, such as a town square or historic church.

What it does not lack, however, is a social and cultural center. It has one in the YMCA. Without the "Y", Granite City would be much like a jockey without a horse; it would have no place to go.

The estimated attendance of over 130,000 at the "Y" last year is equivalent to every man, woman and child in the Quad-Cities attending three times. Equally astronomical is the number of different activities offered. From football to judo, from tap dancing to weight lifting, if it can be done, it is being done — at the "Y".

More important than the list of current activities is the fact that today or tomorrow another three or four may be added. "Y" does not rest on its laurels.

Open Door Policy

Behind its popularity and value to the community is the "Y" open door policy. Through it, any person's hobby or interest can in time become an organized activity under the "Y" aegis. General Secretary Chester A. "Bud" McMillan is the first to attest to this. "The 'Y' achievement should go to the volunteers," he says, "not to the staff. It is the volunteers who bring their ideas to the 'Y' to have them put into effect."

Many of the programs now going on at top speed at the "Y" were at one time merely one man's hobby or sport. Because McMillan and his assistants are easy to convince, the Quad-Cities now have judo, fencing, scuba diving, individual gymnastics and women's physical fitness classes.

The judo classes which spill out over one corner of the basement three times a week began with Robert Whelan's training in Japan in the army. When friends learned that he had picked up judo instruction there, they suggested he start a similar program here. The logical place to go — the "Y".

Whelan discussed the sport's potentialities with McMillan, and the secretary agreed to let him up with space and a mat.

Growth Of Judo Program

So three years ago judo began here with a handful of experimenters. Today Whelan handles over 100 enthusiasts, ranging in age from eight to 52. Whole families have taken up the sport, and classes have had to be limited because of burgeoning enrollment.

This summer Omer Guler, a college student from Eskisehir, Turkey, who is staying in Granite City during the school vacation, started what promises to be one of the best-followed new sports at the "Y". When Guler told McMillan that he had been

YOGIS FOR AN HOUR, elementary school boys and girls tumbling and gymnastics on summer afternoons. The secretary offered him a home for the sport if it could be organized.

Ernest Karandjeff, president of the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank, shared Guler's enthusiasm and secured ten members for a class. By the end of the year 30 members are expected for the neophyte class, and a fencing club will be organized.

Activities For Women

The same theme runs through women's classes. Miss Jeanette Triang of Madison, a "Y" member 15 years, said she and other ladies had more to find a few friends who were interested before classes were begun in golf and trampolining instruction.

For housewives like Mrs. Jewell Bell of Granite City, the Swim Gym club for women offers opportunities for exercise which can be found nowhere else. ## Four Judges Selected But One Still Needed To Rate Miss GC Contestants

Despite unconfirmed rumors that competition among candidates to judge the Miss Granite City entries was less than a contest among the beauty contestants themselves, a panel of four out-of-town judges has been selected, it was announced.

Earl Parsons, sub-chairman for the annual event sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, said negotiations were still under way last week to find a fifth judge who would have the power to break a tie in event of a split vote.

Those chosen so far have experience in fields which make them specially qualified as beauty commissioners. Names of the judges will be withheld until the night of the pageant, Aug. 12.

The eight girls will be rated for personality, beauty, talent and poise and the winner will automatically be this city's entry in the 1962 Miss Illinois contest, to be held next summer at a location not yet decided.

Convertible Caravan
The day before the pageant, the contestants will be driven around town in convertibles starting at 6 p.m. Although the route and other arrangements have not been completed, tentative plans call for the caravan to pass by the home of each girl.

A judges' tea will be held at 5 p.m. the day of the pageant and will provide judges with a chance to get better acquainted with the entries plus rate them for personality.

Tickets for the pageant— which this year will be held at the Granite City high school auditorium— and ball afterwards at the Big Top Bowl "500" Theatre are $2.50 a couple and $1.50 for single admission. Granite City Jaycees and Jayceettes are selling them.

The Press-Record is publishing photographs and statistics on two of the eight contestants in successive issues until all have been featured.

building as Aaron and his wife drove off.

Aaron Returns To Station

Preparing to close the station, Barr said he went to a locker and got his .38 caliber automatic and placed it in his right hip pocket. He was at the register getting change for another customer buying cigarettes when Aaron walked inside and "began pushing me around. Finally I let him get into my left front pocket and he took out some change. I told him to take his 50 cents, which he did and gave me back the rest of the change."

"I asked him to leave, and he wouldn't. I turned to keep him from getting the gun and tried to get away from him and then Peggy Mustain tried to break it up by getting in between us."

Aaron, according to state mounts Mark and two sisters, Sandra, 15, and Beth, 2. Grandparents are Mrs. Robert Squires and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Potillo, and great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rainwater, all of Granite City.

When the first shot was fired, Mrs. Mustain drove to the ground. Barr said he saw blood around Aaron's shirt at his abdomen. Barr added that Aaron kept holding Mrs. Mustain, so the operator ran out the door and walked back over the door and fired two more shots. "He went down to the floor, and I saw him the last shot," Barr told police.

Mrs. Aaron verified the argument over the brake fluid and Mrs. Mustain told her husband "get out and don't come back any more" after he had paid the 50 cents. "He drove off and parked on Madison avenue near Third street and my husband then got out and walked back to the service station."

"The next thing I knew I heard some shooting. I ran back to the station and saw my husband laying on the ground."

Pleadings Of Innocent

Innocent pleadings were entered Saturday before Police Magistrate Garyovic to three of four charges by Joseph Turner, 63, of Edwardsville, who was arrested Friday evening by Granite City police at Washburn avenue and Nameoki road.

Turner pleaded to a charge of profanity and was fined $30 and pleaded innocent to charges of driving while under the influence of alcohol, speeding 75 miles an hour in a 40 mph zone and improper display of state license plates. His bond was set at $450 for a hearing Aug. 10.

Nude Man In Street

Granite City police received a telephone complaint about 2:15 p.m. Sunday that a nude man was walking in the street in the 1200 block of Meridian street. Police were unable to locate the nudist, who apparently was trying to cool off on one of the hottest nights of the summer. Earlier, at 1:50 a.m., Madison police received a similar complaint from Rhodes street.

Auto Burns At Canal

Bobby C. Moore, 1911 Grand avenue, reported to the sheriff's office at Edwardsville about 3:10 a.m. Sunday that as he was driving along the Chain of Rocks canal near the north point, his 1952 auto caught fire and was destroyed. No injuries were listed.

Justices Accepting Task Of Adequately Serving Public

Meetings being held between the five Madison county justices of the peace mark a milestone in the efforts to implement new state laws revamping the lower court system. Though all problems have not been resolved, the discussions indicate acceptance of the justices' responsibility for adequately serving the public.

Arrests at inconvenient times may be rare, but it is important that a workable system be devised for establishment and acceptance of bonds and for conducting hearings.

Alternating of availability on weekends and nights is possibly one of the simplest answers, and the grouping of two justices in the northern end of the county and three in the southern area is a logical plan. The result can be reduced delay for both officers and those who are arrested.

Strict Enforcement Of Muzzle Law Is Wise Step

Summer's "dog days" have arrived and with them the season when many youngsters and adults are bitten by dogs. City officials deserve commendation for their crackdown on animals loose without muzzles, because this is a definite hazard.

There is nothing cruel about the law; even the friendliest of pets will attack people if it is stricken by rabies, and the anti-rabies treatment often given to dog bite victims is extremely painful. Since over 100 local residents have been bitten already this summer, there is a sound basis for strict enforcement of the muzzle law. Dog owners should comply with the requirements.

Extra Protection For Shoppers In Illinois

New laws intended to protect consumers from unscrupulous business practices, signed into law by Gov. Kerner last week, afford still another reason why it is wise to shop in Illinois.

This extra safeguard will bolster the continuing stand by reputable stores, dealers and realtors against bait advertising, fraudulent labeling, false guarantees, selling under false pretenses and questionable real estate operations.

There has been difference of opinion over the need for additional legislation and the extent of the powers newly vested in the attorney general, but there is agreement that shoppers can visit businesses in this state with certainty that their confidence in the merchandise, price and sales methods is justified.

Venice Park Shelter Refreshing Example Of Citizenship, Service

Enthusiastic planning and labor by Venice Lions in voluntarily constructing shelters adjacent to children's playground areas in Lee Park constitutes a refreshing example of the type of unselfish community service regularly performed by many local service organizations.

Limited to some extent by its finances, the Venice park district has carried out many improvements but has left the door open for other projects by its citizens. Combined with an unique domed shelter which the district itself hopes to erect this year, the two Lions club structures will afford helpful protection for park users from sudden weather changes.

Peace Corps, Yes...

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of guest editorials by Oguz Bulent Nayman of Turkey, who is doing post-graduate work at Southern Illinois University and is currently on the news staff of the Press-Record.)

As a former local employee of the United States Information Service in Turkey for several years, I'm a sincere believer of Peace Corps.

There could be some Americans who may think the money, the food, and the arms which you are sending to underdeveloped countries will help to solve their problems, and this is enough. Why send young people to live under bad conditions of those countries? I'll say that with the Peace Corps, the real U.S. aid will start.

The money, the food, the arms, all of these material aids, I think, are a big help to those people to survive, to build up their countries, to defend themselves against aggressive forces of Communism. But one thing was not in this U.S. aid, which was the spirit.

I have no doubt these volunteer young students are going to fill up this very important gap with their young, friendly and warm feelings, living in harmony with those people of underdeveloped countries in the same living conditions, sharing their troubles and helping them to get through.

The U.S. government spends quite an amount of money in order to promote friendship and good relations between American people and the people of the world through the U.S. Information Services. But somehow the results are not always sufficient. The human psychology is an important and effective factor in this situation. I would like to illustrate my point with an example.

Every year, 4-11 exchange youth come to Turkey in order to spend a few months with the Turkish peasants in their villages. I have many delightful memories out of my interviews with those Turkish peasants about young American farmers. Believe me, they leave a legend behind them.

In a very modest atmosphere the Turkish peasant would say "At the beginning we thought this is not gonna work, but we were wrong. These Americans are different. They are with us, worked with us, slept in the same hut we do, and even learned some Turkish to speak with us. They work hard. We just love them. My wife and daughter cried for days when they left us. We put their photographs on the wall now. We remember them everyday."

We served films, exhibits, booklets, magazines, papers to the very same village about America and its people. But the one thing they still remember are those young people. And they will never forget them. If they talk about America, they'll start, "Years ago two Americans came to our village..."

I think this is the main thing when you help.

The best reducing exercise that we know of is pushing away from the table soon enough.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

By Rev. Alfred Buls
Pastor, Hope Lutheran Church

A clock pendulum never remains in any one position. It swings from the extreme left to the extreme right. In order to counteract moral decay or activities that are a threat to community life stern measures are suggested. Perhaps nothing is done until a serious crime is committed, a child is run over, a business man is shot and killed, and then the cry is raised. Drastic action to prevent a repeat offense is suggested. In its extreme such proposals as the following have been made: When a murder was committed a man suggested that all teenagers be outlawed. When a teenager killed several people with his car it was suggested that all teenagers be banned from driving.

This points to the problem that we face. We must make an effort to maintain moral standards and the safety of all people. To a certain extent laws can do this. Such drastic action as suggested above is both impractical and harmful, creating new problems in an effort to solve old ones.

A. O. Smith To Appeal Ordered By NLRB

A. O. Smith Corp. announced today that it will petition the U. S. Court of Appeals to review and deny enforcement of an order handed down last week by the National Labor Relations Board ordering the company not to recognize Boilermakers Local 575 and to reinstate 23 workers released about three years ago, giving them back pay which would amount to about $300,000.

Nicholas R. Brink, manager of the local plant, said, "We have studied the order carefully and feel there is a serious question concerning its legality. In our opinion, it goes beyond the authority vested in the National Labor Relations Board, and even more important, its effect could disrupt the harmonious relations that have been formed between employees and their company since this case began 3 1/2 years ago. This would not only create a hardship on A. O. Smith and all of the people who work in this plant, but it would be unfair to the entire community."

In a bulletin, the company assured employees that the NLRB order in no way altered their present contract and that all matters relating to it would remain unchanged until a final decision is reached by the courts.

Women's Softball Champions Here Wednesday

Raybestos Bracketets Return To Play St. Louis Blues In Benefit Twinbill

Softball at its best — by the opposite sex — that's what it is in store for Queen of the Hill Wednesday night when the three-time women's champions, the Raybestos Bracketets of Stratford, Conn., meet the St. Louis Blues women's amateur team in a doubleheader, with the first game starting at 7:30.

These same two squads met last year at Wilson Park and attracted over 2500 area fans. Last year, the Bracketets battled the Blues to the wire and won with an unearned run, 1-0.

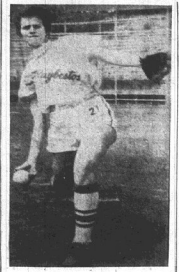

Currently 28-4 for the season, Manager Vin Cullen's Bracketets will bring practically the same team here that played a year ago. The team roster indicates only one change in the lineup. In the last three seasons the Bracketets have chalked up an almost unbelievable 162-19 won-loss record. Since 1947 they have compiled a 489-50 record.

This will be the sixth and seventh exhibition games at Wilson Park for the Blues this season. Thus far, the St. Louis club has not found the park's confines too friendly, having dropped the last four decisions. A doubleheader with the First Savings girls' squad from Forest Park, Ill., was canceled here Saturday due to a conflict in the Chicago area team's schedule.

Perfect Game This Year
Certain to see sound duty tonight against the Blues for the Bracketets will be Joan Joyce, winner of last year's contest. Sporting an unblemished record of 11-0 this year, she has four no-hitters and one perfect game fashioned among the victories. In just 18 innings, the right-hander has fanned 229 batters while yielding a meager 37 walks, 19 hits and four runs.

She picked up two world tournament victories last year and now has a W-L lifetime record of 6-0 — allowing only one unearned run. Last year with the Bracketets, she won 22 and lost one, plus leading the team in hitting with a .404 batting average. Her lifetime record with Raybestos is 77-7.

A possible starter for the Bracketets is one of Wednesday night's games might be Bertha

JOAN JOYCE, a probable starter in Wednesday night's exhibition benefit doubleheader at Wilson Park, is undefeated this year having posted 11 wins, including four no-hitters and one perfect game.

Bowland Increases Tavern Loop Lead

Bowland increased its Tavern Loop lead yesterday by eking out a 4-3 win over second-place Sportman's Club behind the pitching of Sonny Miloski.

Polish Hall moved within one game of second in the standings with a 13-2 win over Miller & Mickey's. In other games, Club Delmar edged John Miller 4-2 and Cotton's bombed Home of the Blues 14-5.

Don Crabtree led Bowland over Sportman's with a 3-for-3 performance at the plate. Hoot Gibson did the catching for the winners. Jim Goodrich and Ralph Morris were the losing battery.

Bill Favier tossed a no-hitter for league-leading Moose Lodge 272 Thursday night at Wilson Park in the Class B softball league. Victims of Favier's effectiveness were the cellar-dwelling Knights of Columbus, 15-0.

Favier yielded two walks in the contest and those were the only baserunners for the K. of C.

Moose scored in every inning as Ralph Morris and Don May blasted homers for the winners. Rich Briggs and Chuck Outland shared receiving duties for Moose. Bill Haug, losing hurler, was caught by Bob Kraus and Jack Tritsch.

The win boosted the Moose to a 7-1 record for the season and upped their advantage to one full stock and one-half car at Tri-City Speedway, 8-6-2 record.

In other action Thursday night, Graniteville exploded for seven runs in the third inning to stunlock Modern Extremists, 9-5.

GC's Bill Seebold Jr. Captures 5 Firsts In Yesterday's Boat Races

Granite City's Bill Seebold Jr. thrilled over 2500 area fans yesterday afternoon at outdoor motorboat races on the Mississippi River at the mouth of the Hartford Canal by winning five of the 10 professional class events.

A past national overall point champion, he piloted his boat to victories in the Class A hydroplane and runabout, Class B hydroplane, Class C racing hydroplane and D-F hydroplane race.

Sanctioned by the National Outboard Drivers Association, the events were co-sponsored by the Granite City Kiwanis club and Bow Line Boat Club.

The races attracted entries from nine states. Four present or past national champions, besides Bill Seebold Jr., competed.

All races were three laps, and all 12 events provided a good field, with such drivers as national champions Dick Pond of Keokuk, Ia.; D. runabout; John Dorich of St. Charles, Mo.; A hydroplane; Ralph Hemmingshaus, Sandow, Ill.; C and D hydroplane; and Eton Johnson, of Quincy, Ill.; D. runabout.

Other first-place winners in the Seebold-dominated field were: Dick Avalon, Terre Haute, Ind.; D. stock; Dertsch, B. runabout; Hemmingshaus, C. racing runabout; Kenneth Nichols, St. Louis; C. service runabout; and Joe Benoit, St. Louis; C. service hydroplane. Everyone was disqualified for "jumping the gun" in the D-F runabout.

The Kiwanis club's share of the proceeds will be used for club civic and youth work. The boat club will use its share to improve facilities at its new location.

Harold Workman Tops Stock Car Qualifiers

Results of Saturday night's stock car racing at the Tri-City Speedway show Harold Workman as the fastest qualifier. The races are a reminder that the summer season is well under way.

Junior Penna won the 20-lap lobby car feature; Len Baumgartner was second and Jim Pierson finished third. Workman also capped the 25-lap championship car feature race, with Bob Neuschke placing second and Barbearu capturing third.

Mercer Holds Lead With 11-4 Win, Sacred Heart Loses 11-10 Thriller

Front-running teams continued to win in yesterday's Inter-City Baseball League play, which was highlighted by over half of the teams.

Mercer Funeral Home, Blue Division leader, trounced Troy 11-4 at Wilson Park, but McAtee of East St. Louis stayed only a half-game behind Mercer by edging Sacred Heart 11-10 in East St. Louis.

In other games, the East St. Louis Moose, tops in the Red Division, downed Maryville 7-5; runner-up Collinsville blanked Carpenter 7-0; and Peachontas crushed White City 12-2.

Jack Buente notched his eighth victory against one defeat in hurling an eight-hitter for Mercer. Losing pitcher was Manley. The local squad was led by Gary Burnester with five runs batted in and three hits in the fifth and sixth.

Ken Wells started and was relieved by John Rains, with Grant Takamajan finishing on the mound for Sacred Heart. Richard Ryan homered for the winners.

Three-Run First Frame
Mercer took a 3-0 lead in the first on walks to Crabtree and Burnester and Burnester's long home run, and moved ahead 6-1 in the fifth after Troy had Grant Takamajan finishing on the mound for Sacred Heart. The local team was led by meier singled, Branding doubled.

Burnester Struck in the Fifth
The count reached 8-1 in the sixth as Burnester doubled, Pete Burdge singled, Buente reached base on an error, and Cook singled. Troy added one in the seventh and two in the ninth, while Mercer tallied three eighth-inning runs on hits by Buente and Crabtree, Cook's triple and Branding's single.

Mercer totaled 12 hits and made two errors. Troy erred five times.

Hearts Beaten In Ninth
Larry Diak, Bob Price and Harry Smith each collected three hits for Sacred Heart as the local squad fought hard in its so-so battle with McAtee, but the host team was ahead at the end of the important ninth inning.

Starting a run in the first, the Hearts dropped behind 3-1 in the last half of the inning and then saw the lead change hands several times. They tallied twice in the eighth to go ahead 10-9, but Jerry Gregory broke up the game in the last of the ninth with a bases-loaded single.

Church Slow Pitch Leaders Win; Await Friday's Showdown

Bethel Community and Madison Baptist remained tied for first in the Church Slow Pitch League after Friday night's games at Wilson Park but Madison had to go two extra innings before edging Community Heights, 6-5. Bethel dropped Good Shepherd, 6-3.

Madison Baptists grabbed the lead with one run in the fourth frame but Community Heights scored two runs in both the sixth and seventh innings. The Baptists came back with two in the half of the sixth and one tally in the bottom of the seventh to force the game into extra innings. Both teams scored once in the eighth, and Madison won the contest with one more in the ninth.

Satell Page and Bob Simpson homered for Madison and Frank Eaves and Charles Stanfield were the winning battery. Dave Wilson was the losing hurler and Rich Wilson did the catching.

Bethel scored three times in the first, twice in the third and a lone tally in the seventh while handling Good Shepherd its eighth straight defeat against the Ray Doolin homered for the winners while Floyd Burlingame did the pitching, being caught by Bob Bider. A federal wagering stamp, one of two issued for the county, went to Ada Barber, 1004 Calhoun street, Venice.

Granite City Police Chief Raymond Willard told the Press-Record the tavern has a pinball machine, but frequent checks by police have failed to disclose any gambling on the device.

Venice Chief Frank DeWitt said the home of Ada Barber was checked recently and police reported she had suffered a stroke about a year ago and is confined to a wheel chair. "There is no gaming equipment in her home," Chief DeWitt said Saturday.

Police Gladly Return Missing Male — A Goat

Madison police picked up a shady character in the 1400 block of Market street at 2:30 p.m. Friday. They took him to the station, but did not make an arrest — the vagrant in question was a goat.

With the city jail and police quarters undergoing extensive remodeling, there was little available space to accommodate the city's latest guest, and for a time it seemed there might be a problem.

Just about five minutes after the pickup, however, George Gaudin, 15, of 1517 Collinsville avenue called to inquire about a missing friend; a white male goat, about so high and so big. The description was adequate, and police gladly released the prisoner to the custody of his owner.

Speeding Charge
Lowell Eppasow, 25, of Alton, was issued an arrest ticket Saturday morning at Johnson and Nameoki roads on a charge of speeding. He posted his driver's license as bond.

FUTURE BASKETBALL STARS? Andy Sullivan, shown here instructing a group of participants in the boys' sports camp at Wilson Park, may be asking himself that question. Sullivan, one of the instructors in the Granite City park district's sports camp, is also head basketball and football coach at Granite City high school. Boys shown here are in the 9-12 age group.

Do not let half-truth advertising mislead you. You know better. For instance... all butter must comply with government standards to be sold. Yet, some brands are much more tastier. Some cooks bake pies that are a real treat. Others using the same ingredients spoil them.

Mudge Seeks Rehearing In Area Tavern Case

An application for a rehearing before the Illinois Liquor Commission from its July 14 decision reversing Madison County Liquor Commissioner Gus Haller's revocation of the county liquor permit for George's Place tavern, Route 111, was sent late Thursday by State Atty. Dick H. Mudge, Mudge, who left Friday for a vacation, is expected to reply within three weeks. He contends the state liquor board erred in ruling evidence to be insufficient to uphold a license revocation handed down in June by Haller.

The state's attorney states in the application that testimony of witnesses to the state commission "proved by substantial evidence that agents and employees of the licensee were openly soliciting customers for prostitution during March, April and May 1961."

The county revocation was handed down following a hearing at Edwardsville on June 8 when testimony was given by a special investigator for the state's attorney's office that he had been solicited by a waitress while investigating the place.

The licensee, George Nelson, appealed the county ruling, and the revocation was reversed.

Millions Of New Jobs To Be Created By The Buying Public

In his inaugural speech President Kennedy stated "It's not what your country can do for you—it's what you can do for your country." Fredman Bros. Furniture Co. takes this to include dealers and manufacturers as well as individuals. Economic slumps are caused by the fact that the millions of people who really need goods and services are able to purchase them are doing without. Wake up America—use your dormant dollars now to buy goods and services you need to help put your fellow countrymen back to work! It's patriotic to buy now to help yourself as well as the man without a job. Wake up manufacturers and dealers. Don't wait for someone else to pull you out of a rut. Cooperate with the consumer by offering him irresistible inducements for him to buy. Downtown Merchants—disregard profits; give John Q. Public values that he can't afford not to buy. Offer values as your insurance of staying in business. In order to succeed this must mean total cooperation between suppliers, dealers, and the buying public.

PROJECT PROSPERITY

The Merchandise Mart is spending in excess of $100,000 to promote Project Prosperity—a concentrated program to inspire confidence and enthusiasm with the multi-million dollar home furnishings industry. Leading furniture stores throughout the country are joining in an effort to revitalize consumer confidence. This is the ideal opportunity for the working public to replace worn out furniture, carpeting and appliances at great savings and at the same time create more jobs in an American industry. Fredman Bros. Furniture Co. is pledged to do its share to help keep The Quad-Cities area prosperous. The primary ingredients necessary to realize this aim are positive thinking, well planned inventories, quality merchandise, change, good values, and liberalizing in an effort to revitalize

The Unemployed Need Your Cooperation

Millions of people who furnished their homes, old and new, in need of replacement items. Appliances, furniture, rugs and numerous home accessories are now worn out, but people who can well afford to replace them are not because of the "scare talk" which has given the whole country the shivers. Even cars are being pushed beyond their normal operating lives because of fear of bad business. If those folks who could actually afford it would just purchase the goods they need and want they could create millions of jobs. Jobs replacing merchandise in dealers inventories, jobs for those now unemployed due to the slump. If you need any merchandise that this offer right here in or service — and can afford Granite City will ignite a local "Back-to-Work" movement and get the economy on an upward trend toward increased prosperity.

Recovery Room Opens Tomorrow At Local Hospital

The new recovery room at St. Elizabeth Hospital, which will serve the majority of patients who are put to sleep for an operation, will open on schedule tomorrow, according to Sister Teresa, anesthetist at the hospital.

Designed to save time by permitting a faster operating room schedule, the room also will increase the safety of patients recovering from anesthesia by providing them with emergency equipment to handle most complications that might evolve.

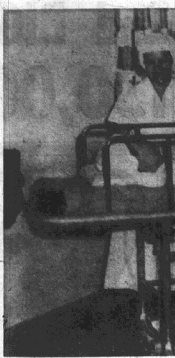

Located on the fourth floor of the south wing, the room will be staffed by two nurses on duty during the day and night, and orderlies, doctors, anesthetists and an inhalation specialist will be on constant call.

The room has a capacity of six patients who will remain there until the patient is conscious and vital signs such as respiration, blood pressure and pulse have become normal.

Nurses who will be regularly assigned to the room are Mrs. Shirley Wendell, head nurse, and Mrs. Dorothy Niep, practical nurse.

Drug Racing Complaint
A complaint that motorists were drug racing in the 1300 block of Grand avenue about 1:40 a. m. Sunday was received by Granite City police who were unable to locate the racers.

Error in Budget Figure
Salvation Army budget figures for 1962 were erroneously listed in the July 20 issue. The correct total budget is $30,621, with the United Fund contribution set at $20,056.

Nurses practice for future patients in the new recovery room scheduled to open tomorrow at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Assistance men remodeled the room, which formerly was a laboratory and now will be used to care for patients recovering from anesthesia. Standing from left are Mrs. Beatrice Harlan and Miss Hazel Wheeler, and Mrs. Patricia Kemper is the patient. All are registered nurses.

Wilson School Playground Has Top Attendance

A cigar box stuffed with entry blanks offered mute testimony last week to the active participation at the school with the highest attendance of the seven in the Granite City park district's summer recreation program.

Art Menendez, playground director at Wilson school, 2400 Wilson avenue, just manages to fit all 250 applications in a cigar box. That many youngsters had registered during the summer for the program. With an average daily attendance of 140, he said.

And Park Recreation Director Harold Brown, describing the program as a whole, said, "I don't see how we can get much larger, but I can't get my stopping point in the next few weeks according to the rate we're growing at at the present."

This year's average overall weekly attendance of 1,300 was 849 higher than last year's average of 350, Brown said. Playgrounds have been at Marshall, Nemo, Niedringhaus, McKinley, Logan, Lincoln Place and Wilson schools.

Talent Show Draws 54
Last week a talent show at Wilson school attracted 54 entries and about the same number of spectators—including several parents and Mrs. Helen Bjorkman, overall director of the summer recreation program.

Talent displayed included tap dancing, a dance combo, baton twirling, square dancing, piano and cornet solos and vocal numbers. Some youngsters brought their photographs and records for listening.

Although no formal rehearsals were held for the show, some entries practiced on their own for the past two weeks, Menendez said. Mike Kalpas was master of ceremonies and two boys enrolled in the program, Vivian Antmann and Marilee Sigal, assisted in direction.

The last big event of this summer's program at Wilson school is a holiday show scheduled for today. Youngsters will display collections of shells, edibles, stamps, leaflets, match boxes, or whatever they take pride in saving or constructing.

"Our main hope is that they'll leave at home any reptiles they might be collecting," Menendez laughed.

Family Picnic Planned
The concluding activity for all schools participating in the program will be Thursday evening in Wilson Park, when a family summer recreation picnic is planned. It will be followed by a talent show featuring selected entries from the various playgrounds.

What did the participants at Wilson school like best about the summer activities?

"Handicraft, sewing and baton lessons" were the choices of Lee Duffield. "I like it all, I like every bit of it," exclaimed Elaine Robinson. Both youngsters participated in the program throughout the season.

Director Menendez has been aided this year by Nancy Sewell and Sandy Skubish, assistant leaders.

DETENTION HOME PLAN MAY BE REVIVED

Committee budget hearings being conducted at Edwardsville by the county board of supervisors are continuing this week, and during a session late last week a request was made for revival of a county detention home construction proposal that was held up earlier this year.

A member of the detention home committee, Alton Supervisor Robert Miller requested that 60% of the county's income from half-cent sales tax be earmarked for the construction. Cost of construction had been estimated at about $225,000, but the lowest bid amounted to about $320,000. Miller said there is now an excess of $125,000 in the fund earmarked for the detention home.

The proposal is to be made before the county finance committee at a meeting set for Thursday.

City Agencies Urged To Develop Overall MFT Program

(This is the 14th in a series of articles based on a reorganization study of city government in Granite City by Southern Illinois University.)

Development of an overall plan for motor fuel tax street improvements — an often-debated issue in Granite City council sessions — is urged by the SIU team of government experts.

The program, the expert point out, should be set up through the mayor, related council committees, City Planning Commission, operating departments and city engineer, using the Harland Bartholomew planning reports, as well as conferring with the state highway department.

Special Assessments
It is suggested the city attempt to initiate street improvements through special assessment procedures with the city assuming a portion of the cost through SIU funds.

Under the provisions of the motor fuel tax law, the state assumes a portion of the cost of each city in accounts in the state treasury. The funds are transferred to the municipality only upon application in connection with approved projects.

Funds are distributed on the basis of population, the amount being approximately $5 per capita. Granite City received $185,323 in allocations during the 1960 calendar year and had an allotment balance in Springfield in the amount of $383,263 last March 30.

Receipts during 1961 are expected to make approximately $600,000 available for expenditure.

A brief review of projects for which appropriations already have been made, the report indicates that for the 1961 calendar year some $645,000 in Motor Fuel Tax was scheduled. This amount included for estimating and planning for the 1961 arterial street maintenance program, but includes no money for the 10½ city parcels in the state projects on 20th street and Nankin road.

Conflicting priorities
"Obviously some of the city Motor Fuel Tax projects must be delayed, but there is no central policy and no decision-making body."

A priority list not only for the 15 or 16 Motor Fuel Tax projects for which appropriations have been made but for all the street work planned by the city should be set up, should be continuously reviewed and should be the basis on which council decisions are made. Those should be programmed as part of the capital improvement budget.

"The mayor as executive head should see that the Planning Commission becomes more actively involved in determining street improvement projects, construction programs to insure consistency with overall planning objectives."

"The proposed department of public works also should be able to contribute in a better way to the long-range programming of such improvements. The schedule of improvements to be developed should be used by the city council in making decisions on improvements."

"The present rash of projects indicates considerable lack of planning."

Purposes of MFT
"The state dispenses the funds to municipalities for the maintenance and improvement of a system of arterial streets. The arterial streets are those which meet certain standards and have been so designated by the state at the request of the local officials."

"Arterial streets are those within the municipality, except state highways, which connect a state highway and another arterial street or run between two existing arterial streets. While the Illinois highway code does not specifically define an arterial street, it does provide that designation of arterial streets shall be made by the state highway department, on the basis of traffic, public buildings, parks, cemeteries and similar centers of traffic concentration.

"When 80% of its arterial street mileage has been a factor, improved, the municipal authorities may request new arterial street designations up to 10% of the mileage of arterial streets already approved."

"The city may file any number of resolutions designating arterial streets, one after the approval of the other. The state will not approve the designation of an unopened street as arterial, however, unless the request is accompanied by a construction resolution."

Record System Needed
"The resident engineer maintains a current map of arterial streets. This map is available from the state highway department. Cards have been filed in the state highway department for each arterial street which are filed in order by arterial street number. These cards are used for the information besides the limits of the arterial street. A few give the surface and distance."

"It is recommended that the engineer color code the arterial street map to show the type of improvement of arterial streets and which non-arterial streets are improved. A separate card should be made out not only for each street but for each section of an arterial street with a different type of improvement. The cards should give street dimensions and type and date of improvement."

The cost of the improvement should be given, and space should be available for indicating past and future improvements. The cards should be printed forms containing boxes for the desired information. Only with information as described on the maps and cards will there be a useful record of accomplishment and a basis for future planning."

First Use For MFT
"Motor fuel tax funds must be used first for the improvement of any state highway which passes through the municipality. Funds are used mainly for construction or maintenance of arterial streets although there are provisions for the construction of traffic control devices and for signage under certain conditions."

"The law states that a priority shall be given projects on the cost of which will be financed from special assessments. Projects are used mainly for the improvement of arterial streets. 25% of the total motor fuel tax allotments made during the previous year shall be spent on construction or maintenance of improved streets other than arterial streets. The remaining 75% has been interpreted to mean a street with a built up base as opposed to dirt streets."

"This interpretation has made the use of 25% of motor fuel tax funds for non-arterial street maintenance virtually useless in Granite City and other cities. It is also a highly contradictory requirement since the city can usually get the street designated arterial and can then spend motor fuel tax funds on its maintenance."

TEENAGERS ENTERTAINED AT SOUTH PACIFIC PARTY

Teenagers of the Paddlers swimming club and their guests were entertained with a swimming party, luau and Hawaiian dance at the club's private pool on Johnson road Saturday evening.

Mrs. Edith McDee, chairman of the event, used a tropical setting for the decorations and the theme of the evening. The baby pool was converted into a huge punch bowl by draining and lining with a plastic film and filling it with fruit punch. Cut flowers and cut fruit floated in the punch and also were used to anchor the rim. Pineapple dippers were used as a centerpiece. The entrance to the punch bowl was decorated with palm trees in the corners and leis in the center. A more tropical appearance by soft colored lights from lamps strung overhead.

Leis decorated the fence surrounding the entire pool, and torch lights completed the tropical theme.

Games under the direction of Big Chief Donawick. Donald Brumlow, assistant manager, introduced a highpoint race diving for a greased watermelon and relay races. He was dressed in a striped cotton skirt, lei and large straw hat, plus a cigar. Most of the girls wore maui over their swim suits, and the boys sported loud tropical shirts over their swimming trunks. Each guest was given a lei. Mrs. Elaine and Ethelme danced the hula, and several children gave interpretive Hawaiian dances.

An authentic luau was served, with three barbecued pigs as the main course. The pigs were barbecued during the day in the picnic area behind the pool, and the enticing aroma gave the whole party a festive aura from the beginning to the end.

Mrs. McDee and Ethelme were assisted by Keith Parker, pool manager. Mrs. Mary Jesse, Nicholas, 1333 Fourth street, and Mrs. Polly West and Mrs. Dorothy Gilcho.

During her interview before the show, Mrs. Snyder told the audience that her wish was for a "second-hand piano" for her eight-year-old daughter, Vicki. The child has had a siege of serious illnesses her mother said, but is fine now.

In order to take care of the medical expenses for the little girl, Mrs. Snyder said her husband, Derwood, serves as janitor at their church and while they are occupied cleaning and dusting, Vicki takes music lessons from the church organist.

Although she was not chosen to appear in the audience applauding Mrs. Snyder will receive the candidate gifts, including an electric scrubber, a 10-piece vanity set and a percolator.
